“Ben Cohen is a person. Jerry Greenfield is a person. Ben & Jerry’s Ice Cream, Inc? Not a person. Why can’t the Supreme Court keep this straight? In Corporations Are Not People, Jeff Clements tells the story of how some of the biggest corporations in the world took over our Constitution, our democracy, and our economy that used to work for everyone. Best of all, Corporations Are Not People shows how we can get them back. Read this book, and let’s get to work.” –Ben Cohen and Jerry Greenfield, founders, Ben & Jerry’s Homemade Ice Cream, and co-founders, Business for Democracy
