

“DID WE FIX THAT?” – MASTER CHART

	Recommendation	Unsatisfactory	Mixed	Satisfactory
1	States should adopt online voter registration.	Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Kentucky, Michigan	Colorado, Georgia, Louisiana
2	Interstate exchanges of voter registration information should be expanded.	Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Louisiana, Colorado
3	States should seamlessly integrate voter data acquired through Departments of Motor Vehicles with their statewide voter registration lists.	Alaska	Colorado, Kentucky, Michigan	Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
4	Schools should be used as polling places; to address any related security concerns, Election Day should be an in-service day.	Alaska, Arkansas	Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina	Colorado, Georgia, Michigan, Pennsylvania
5	States should consider establishing vote centers to achieve economies of scale in polling-place management while also facilitating voting at convenient locations.	Florida, Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania	Alaska, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina	Colorado
6	Jurisdictions should develop models and tools to assist them in effectively allocating resources across polling places.		Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
7	Jurisdictions should transition to electronic pollbooks.	Kentucky	Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Colorado, Georgia
8	Jurisdictions should recruit public and private sector employees, as well as high school and college students, to become poll workers.		Louisiana	Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Michigan, North

“DID WE FIX THAT?” – MASTER CHART

	Recommendation	Unsatisfactory	Mixed	Satisfactory
				Carolina, Pennsylvania
9	States should institute poll worker training standards.		Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina	Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Michigan, Pennsylvania
10	Election authorities should establish advisory groups for voters with disabilities and for those with limited English proficiency.		Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Colorado
11	States and localities must adopt comprehensive management practices to assure accessible polling places.		Georgia	Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
12	States should survey and audit polling places to determine their accessibility.		Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky	Alaska, Colorado, Florida, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
13	Jurisdictions should provide bilingual poll workers at any polling place with a significant number of voters who do not speak English.	Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Arkansas, Michigan	Alaska, Colorado, Florida, Louisiana,
14	Jurisdictions should test all election materials for plain language and usability.	Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
15	States should expand opportunities to vote before Election Day.	Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania	Arkansas, Louisiana, North Carolina	Alaska, Colorado, Georgia, Florida
16	States should provide ballots and registration materials to military and overseas voters via their websites.		Alaska, Michigan, Pennsylvania	Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky,

“DID WE FIX THAT?” – MASTER CHART

	Recommendation	Unsatisfactory	Mixed	Satisfactory
				Louisiana, North Carolina, Florida
17	The standard-setting and certification process for voting machines must be reformed.	N/A	N/A	N/A
18	Audits of voting equipment must be conducted after each election as part of a comprehensive audit program, and data concerning machine performance must be publicly disclosed in a common data format.	Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Michigan	Alaska, Colorado, Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, Pennsylvania
19	Local jurisdictions should gather and report voting-related transaction data for the purpose of improving the voter experience.		Alaska, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Pennsylvania	Arkansas, Colorado, Florida