General Comments:

Although I am not in office and able to vote for SB 250, I support SB 250. My opponent failed to support this important piece of legislation that would streamline the process of registering to vote and provide easier access to millions of Illinois residents when seeking the exercise their right to vote. I also support HJRCA 58 which provides much needed redistricting reform. Placing the important duty of drawing legislative boundaries into the hands of an independent commission and taking it away from the legislature will provide an open and transparent redistricting process that will empower voters to choose their representative
