General Comments:

Question #4 follow-up)

I was not in office when the Illinois House voted on SB 250 in 2016, but I support it and absolutely would have voted for the bill. I should note my opponent, Representative Christine Winger, voted NO on SB 250 when she had the opportunity.

Question #9 follow up)

I strongly support HJRCA 58 because we must take the legislative mapmaking process out of the hands of politicians who try to gerrymander districts and, instead, give that power to an independent body. Voters should pick who their elected officials will be, not the other way around
