

FIVE YEARS AFTER CITIZENS UNITED:

WHAT ARE THE COSTS FOR DEMOCRACY?

January 14, 2015

NYU Abramson Family Auditorium

1307 L Street NW, Washington, D.C.

INTRODUCTION

Lisa Gilbert, Director of Public Citizen's Congress Watch Division

REVIEW OF MONEY'S ROLE IN THE 2014 MIDTERM ELECTION

Large-donor dominance of candidate fundraising in competitive elections

By Karen Shanton, Policy Analyst, Demos

kshanton@demos.org

 @Demos_Org

Outside spending in U.S. Senate races

By Ian Vandewalker, Counsel, Brennan Center for Justice

ian.vandewalker@nyu.edu

 @BrennanCenter

Single-candidate and party-aligned outside groups

By Taylor Lincoln, Research Director, Public Citizen

tlincoln@citizen.org

 @Public_Citizen

The latest threat to laws preventing coordination between candidates and outside groups

By Brendan Fischer, General Counsel, Center for Media and Democracy

brendan@prwatch.org

 @prwatch

The role of money in state judicial campaigns

By Bert Brandenburg, Executive Director, Justice at Stake

bbrandenburg@justiceatstake.org

 @JusticeStake

THE EFFECTS OF MONEY IN POLITICS

How money in politics is blocking progress on key issues important to the American people

By Jay Riestenberg, Research Analyst, Common Cause

jriestenberg@commoncause.org

 @CommonCause

How our big-money system hurts candidates and communities of color

By Adam Lioz, Counsel and Senior Advisor, Demos

alioz@demos.org

 @Demos_Org

SOLUTIONS TO HELP SOLVE THE PROBLEM

Publicly funded elections: success stories from the states

By Tam Doan, Research Director, Public Campaign

tdoan@publiccampaign.org

 @publiccampaign

How a small-donor matching program can make a difference in congressional campaigns

By Dan Smith, Democracy Campaign Director, U.S. PIRG

dsmith@pirg.org

 @uspirg

Solutions from the view of an elected official

By State Representative Matthew Lesser (D-CT)

Matthew.Lesser@cga.ct.gov

 @MattLesser

All research and reports presented today can be found at www.GetMoneyOutAction.org

FIVE YEARS AFTER CITIZENS UNITED: WHAT ARE THE COSTS FOR DEMOCRACY?

PRESENTING ORGANIZATIONS

BRENNAN
CENTER FOR JUSTICE

www.brennancenter.org

Center for Media & Democracy

www.prwatch.org

www.commoncause.org

Dēmos
AN EQUAL SAY AND AN EQUAL CHANCE FOR ALL

www.demos.org

www.justiceatstake.org

PUBLIC
CAMPAIGN
OF, BY, AND FOR THE PEOPLE.

www.publiccampaign.org

www.citizen.org

U.S. PIRG

Standing Up To Powerful Interests

www.uspirg.org

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

New York University for the event space

ReThink Media provided media outreach

Much of the data for these reports was provided by the Center for Responsive Politics (www.opensecrets.org)