Acceptable Forms of Photo ID for Voting for Wisconsin College & University Students

You may present one of the acceptable photo IDs on the right when casting a ballot in Wisconsin.

If you do NOT have one of the acceptable forms of ID pictured above, you may use a school-issued student or voter ID if it meets the criteria to the right and is accompanied by a proof of enrollment document (hard copy or electronic) when presented at the polls.

COLLEGE ID CARD
WISCONSIN ACCREDITED COLLEGE
ISSUANCE DATE
EXPIRATION DATE
CAN BE EXPIRED

Your college ID card MUST have all of the following to be used for voting:

- Photo
- Signature
- Issuance Date
- Expiration date*
- Your school must be a WI accredited college

* Cannot be more than 2 years after card's date of issue

PROOF OF ENROLLMENT

Proof of Enrollment varies for each college. It is a separate document (may be electronic), such as a class schedule or enrollment verification form.

If you are not sure about your proof of enrollment; please ask your college.

If you DO NOT have either one of the acceptable IDs pictured above right or a voter ID compliant school-issued ID you may:

* Apply for a free Wisconsin ID at your local DMV center (but you will have to surrender your out-of-state driver license if you have one in order to get a DOT-Issued Wisconsin ID card).

* If from out-of-state, vote with an absentee ballot in your home state.
